This project aims to help those who are accustomed to working with multimedia files on their own, but do not have much experience in video editing. Source Code: You can download the source code of the tool from Github. You can read the detailed list of Avi2Bmp's features on the project's web page. Free open source software to create BMP files from uncompressed AVI files. When using Avi2Bmp, you will be able to create BMP images from your unedited video files. You can get the source code of the app from GitHub. Avi2Bmp is a simple-to-use program that allows you to extract all the frames of an uncompressed Audio Video Interleave file and save them to a single image with the BMP format. This kind of software can help you create thumbnails or use specific frames to create GIF animations, for example. This is a portable app, so installing Avi2Bmp is not necessary. It means that you can save the tool on a USB flash drive or any other removable device, store it on any computer and directly run its executable file. Thus, you can always have Avi2Bmp with you when you're on the go. As an added bonus, the Windows Registry does not receive new entries, and no files are left behind after removing the app. The interface of Avi2Bmp is based on a small window with a standard layout. You can load a video by using only the file browser because the 'drag and drop' functionality is not included. Unfortunately, you cannot work with multiple entries simultaneously. So, you can switch through all the frames of the clip, as well as specify the number of rows and columns of the frames to be displayed. After the output directory and filename are defined, you can start the extraction operation. The software program needs a low amount of CPU and system memory, has a good response time and quickly finishes a task. The output image has a good quality. We have not come across any issues during our tests; Avi2Bmp did not freeze, crash or pop up error dialogs. On the downside, the tool does not integrate features for advanced users, and it supports only uncompressed AVIs. Plus, its interface needs some improvements. But we 81e310abbf

The campaign, started by group NoH8Canada, is part of a coalition of hundreds of anti-discrimination organizations that want the bill to be delayed until a final report is released on the Government's treatment of those in the LGBT community. It's been signed by more than 200,000 people as of Wednesday morning, more than double the number it needed to reach the required 100,000 signatures by the end of Tuesday. The coalition, which includes the Canadian Labour Congress, the B.C. Human Rights Coalition, the Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives, the Public Service Alliance of Canada, the National Gay & Lesbian Task Force and the Canadian Federation of Students, is calling on the House of Commons to delay the budget bill until a report on LGBT issues is released by the House of Commons Standing Committee on Health. The petition was created by Yves Chouinard, who runs
